

Symphony Saturday Series

Symphony Saturdays, a children's education project of the Maryland Symphony Orchestra Guild, is again offering its program in Hagerstown.

In this four week program, children in grades 1-3 will hear Maryland Symphony Orchestra musicians explain and play their instruments. Each week, children will have the opportunity to try playing some instruments from one of the families in the orchestra (strings, brass, woodwinds and percussion.) This year, the guild will be having three parent/child sessions. The program will take place at St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church, 141 South Potomac Street, Hagerstown. Children will learn some basic musical concepts while having fun as they experience the joy of music.

Dates: February 6 Strings February 13 Percussion February 20 Woodwinds February 27 Brass

Sessions: A: 9:00 AM – 10:00 AM B: 10:15 AM – 11:15 AM C: 11:30 AM – 12:30 PM
