

2026–27 Season Conversation Starters

About the Season

- The Maryland Symphony Orchestra is celebrating its 45th Anniversary Season.
- This season features iconic music brought to life through unforgettable stories and performances.
- There's something for everyone, from timeless classical masterworks to blockbuster film concerts.

Why This Season is Special

- Experience internationally acclaimed guest artists.
- Celebrate beloved composers including Beethoven, Copland, Mozart, Gershwin, Ravel, and Tchaikovsky.
- Enjoy one of the season's biggest events: Pirates of the Caribbean™: The Curse of the Black Pearl in Concert, with the score performed live by the orchestra.
- Discover music that spans centuries while celebrating the power of live performance.

Why Attend

- Live orchestral music is an experience unlike anything you can stream at home.
- Every concert offers something unique, whether you're a lifelong classical music fan or attending for the first time.
- The Maryland Symphony Orchestra is one of our region's greatest cultural treasures, bringing world-class performances to our community.

Who Should Come

- Friends and family who have never experienced a live orchestra.
- Movie lovers interested in Pirates of the Caribbean™ in Concert.
- Anyone looking for a memorable night out.
- Music lovers of all ages.
- Patrons who love classic repertoire and discovering new favorites.

Ticket Information

- Single tickets and subscriptions are on sale now.
- Concerts take place at The Maryland Theatre in downtown Hagerstown.
- Tickets are available at MarylandSymphony.org or by calling the Box Office at 301.797.4001
- We anticipate that Pirates of the Caribbean will sell out early. Don't wait for tickets!