Option 1

I'm excited to kick off the Maryland Symphony Orchestra's 45th Anniversary Season with American Icons! Featuring music by Gershwin, Barber, and Copland, plus acclaimed violinist Bella Hristova, it's the perfect way to start an unforgettable season. Hope to see you there!

Option 2

One of my favorite things about the Maryland Symphony Orchestra is discovering incredible music performed live. American Icons is a wonderful mix of familiar composers, a fantastic guest artist, and an inspiring program. If you've been thinking about attending your first concert, this is a great place to start.

Option 3

Looking for a memorable night out this fall? The Maryland Symphony Orchestra opens its season with American Icons, featuring Bella Hristova performing Barber's Violin Concerto and Copland's thrilling Symphony No. 3. It's going to be a fantastic evening of live music.

Option 4

The Maryland Symphony Orchestra's 45th Anniversary Season begins with American Icons, and I can't wait! Whether you're a longtime concertgoer or curious about experiencing a live orchestra for the first time, this is a wonderful concert to attend.

Invite Someone New

This is an especially great concert to invite:

- Someone who's never attended the symphony.
- A friend who enjoys American history or culture.
- Classical music fans looking for a memorable evening.
- Anyone searching for a unique night out in our community.
